

Financial Support Guidance 2022/2023

There are 3 types of financial support available at Orchard Hill College which help remove financial barriers to learning. These are:

- 1. 16 – 19 Vulnerable Bursary – Maximum of £1,200
- 2. Discretionary Bursary – To help with transport, meals, books and equipment
- 3. Free College Meals – Money for College Meals (£5.00)

Are you:

- Aged 16 and over, on a funded course at Orchard Hill College (please be aware some bursaries may have a higher age limit)
- A resident in the UK or EEA and have been for 3 years prior to 31 August 2022
- Able to meet the eligibility criteria – overleaf

Then you are eligible to apply.

What happens next?

- Complete and return the application form with the relevant evidence
- If you are eligible for one of the 3 bursaries, you will receive a written confirmation from the college
- You will receive your bursary every 2 weeks in accordance with your attendance and behaviour
- Please be advised, you will not be paid for the days you do not attend college

If you think you could be eligible for the financial support that is available and would like an application form, are unsure if you fit the criteria, or even just need more information, then please contact Nicole Zerafa on nzerafa@orchardhill.ac.uk or call 0345 402 0453
